IN MEMORIAM

In memory of William Alfred Doss: This is in memory of the man who brought me up to know right from wrong, he showed me love and understanding as no other could. He comforted his three girls when we needed him most. Through him we learned to love and respect God. He shared his love with us. So when he died a part of each once of us died. I thank God each day that he gave me and my sisters a dad who gave so much and asked so little in return. He was the one person who I never doubted. He loved us and we loved him. Although he is gone he is always with us in our thoughts and lives we will never forget him. 12-22-1t

Memories are keepsakes no one can steal,
Death is a heartache only God can heal.
So as this Christmas season draws near
We want you to know that you're still very dear.
Mamma, Daddy, & Sisters.

Card of Thanks

GREETINGS - WE MADE IT! You, the Doctors and the one who looks after us all. Thanks to every one for everything. Edna Hunter. 12-22-1p

I wish to thank my friends, relatives and neighbors for prayers, visits, cards, gifts, phone calls and every act of kindness shown me while in the hospital and since my return home. God bless you all. Paul Sarver. 12-22-1p

We would like to take this opportunity of expressing our deep appreciation to neighbors, friends, and relatives for cards, food, visits, phone calls, flowers and all acts of kindness shown us during our recent bereavement. A special thanks to the Rev. L. L. Schwimmer and Rev. Jim Becker. The family of the late Sam T. Megginson. 12-22-1p

We would like to thank everyone for your expression of sympathy and kindness during our time of sorrow. Our brother, Lewis Thomas, will always be remembered. Lila Thomas, Alpha Carter 12-22-1t

IN MEMORIAM

"Merry Christmas, to you Daddy, in Heaven"

"Merry Christmas," that's what I'll say. But it will sure be hard to hold back the tears, and pretend I'm happy on this Christmas Day.

It will be one year ago on Christmas Day, that my daddy was taken to Heaven and relieved from his agony and pains. He suffered and fought very hard against a losing battle. That battle was cancer that he had knowingly for over two long years; and in those years; his hours seemed to turn into days with his pains.

He was a terrific husband to my mother and a fantastic father to my sisters, brother and I. We all loved him very much and still do.

He loved the work he did, and the people he worked with, and he also loved it when hunting season came in to hunt with his friends. Outside his family, I think those were the two things he treasured the most.

There isn't a day that passes by that my family and I don't think of the grand memories we all had as a complete family. It's hard without him, but we'll never forget him and we do have many very fond and happy memories to hold in our hearts.

I'll never forget the look on my daddy's face the last day I saw him alive. He was so helpless and looked so pitiful lying there in that hospital bed, and I just couldn't believe that it was my father I was looking at.

He and I were always very close and I guess you could say he spoiled me more than my mother did. I have to ask God each day to help me continue my life without the man, whose footsteps I had seemed to be following.

There's a deep scar on mine and my family's hearts that will be there as long as we live, but with the love we have for each other, and with all our friends, it makes the lonely hours seem half-way fulfilled.

To each of you we wish you a very, Merry Christmas; and on Christmas Day, I won't fight the tears, I'll just wake up and say "Merry Christmas, to you Daddy, in Heaven."

Sidney William Hughes is greatly missed by his wife and children. Doris Hughes 12-22-1t

FINANCIAL AID DIRECTORS DISCUSS PROGRAMS WITH SENIORS AND PARENTS AT ACHS

Shown above left to right, front row, are the program participants: Mr. Hugh Scrogham, Director of Financial Aid at Lynchburg College; Ms. Brantley Richardson, Director of Financial Aid at Randolph-Macon Woman's College; and Mr. John Kerr, Director of Financial Aid at Central Virginia Community College. Second row are parents in attendance; Mrs. Dorothy Carter and Mrs. Robert A. Smook.

On December 19, 1977, a team of financial aid directors at three area colleges presented information to Appomattox County High School seniors on the new financial aid forms (FAF), the State Educational Assistance Programs, the Guaranteed Student Loan Program, the Basic Educational Opportunity Grant Program; and community scholarships and loan programs. The meeting was designed to assist students and their parents with financial sources that will supply their needs. The Guidance Department at ACHS arranged the program.

JORDAN

The Jordan Baptist Sunday School will present their annual Christmas program on Friday night, December 23, at 7:00 p.m. A very special program has been planned for you, so plan to attend.

Regular preaching services will be held on the 4th Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock.

Rev. Elliott and the members of the Jordan Baptist Church wish each and every one a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

We offer our deepest sympathy to the family of the late Mr. Matthew Pankey. Known and loved by all as Uncle Mac, he will be greatly missed in the community.

Heap on more wood! —
the wind is chill;
But let it whistle as it will,
We'll keep our Christmas
merry still.
— Sir Walter Scott

'Tis the season for kindling the fire of hospitality in the hall, the genial fire of charity in the heart.
— Washington Irving

Season's best to you, this Christmas Day. We appreciate the patronage shown to us.
